Dear Mr. Marks:

The attached chart contains our responses to your letter dated January 22, 2007 regarding "open items." As you can see, you were supplied with responses to most of these items already. In at least one case you asked for information that you were provided with over one year ago and already included in pleadings filed in Court. While we are happy to meet and confer on open issues, I request that you review your communications more carefully and not represent to the Court or us that items are "open" when they are not.

Very truly yours,

GLENN T. MELCHINGER
